CORAM : MR.JUSTICE C.K.THAKKAR

Date of decision: 11/02/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

In the light of the circumstances, at the time of admission, interim relief was granted in the petition. No doubt, Mr. Vin, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that various law points have been raised and other petitions are pending.

2. In the facts and circumstances, in my opinion, the relief which was required to be granted had been granted at the time of admission and no useful purpose will be served by keeping the matter pending. Accordingly, the petition deserves to be disposed of by discharging rule. I may, however, state that since I am not entering into the merits of the matter, questions of law which are raised in the present petition and in respect of which other petitions are pending will be decided on their own merits and disposal of this petition will not a bar in raising those questions in other petitionrs. The petition is accordingly disposed of. Rule discharged. Interim relief vacated. No order as to costs.
